Prom Coast Arts Council Inc. is a not-for-profit incorporated community organization, with the aim of promoting and elevating the arts in South Gippsland particularly, and throughout the Gippsland region in general.

Our membership is made up of professional and amateur artists and performers, as well as lovers of art and performance.

Our main activities are:

- *The Great South Gippsland Portrait Prize: portraits of Gippsland residents in any medium by artists from anywhere. Held at the Stockyard Gallery in Foster.
- *Shift: Prom Coast Arts Council members' exhibition, held at the Stockyard Gallery in Foster.
- *The Adam Murfitt Memorial Art Event: a biennial show hosted by PCA and run in conjunction with the Seachange Festival.
- *Occasional art bus tours: PCA members and members of the local community pile onto a bus and check out art galleries in Melbourne and further afield. Great to do a gallery crawl in company.
- *Mossvale Music Festival: in conjunction with Lyrebird Arts Council & Mirboo North Arts Council, an outdoor event featuring local and international artists at Mossvale Park near Leongatha.
- *Auspicing body for Arts projects.
- *Occasional art forums.

Works by PCA members and information on some past PCA events can be seen at www.promcoastarts.org.au
